TRINA BLAS

“If you are upfront with who you are and what you intend to do, it tends to build trust and confidence with others.”

— TRINA BLAS

*Operations Manager
Northern California, East Bay Markets*

Why did you join ASPIRE?

I joined to connect with individuals with similar cultural background. It's important to have a platform to understand other people's cultural perspective and understand how they see and experience the world. Most importantly, to build friendships.

What led you to your career path?

Taking advantage of the opportunities when it presents itself. Always willing to take on more responsibilities and leadership. Heeding the wisdom of mentors I've had throughout my career.

What is a work-related accomplishment you're really proud of?

I've helped people who work for me grow and find a better path in their career, often helping them move into a position that is more fulfilling and beneficial for them.
