PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

TBD Rickenbacker Road is a proposed build-to-suit industrial property in Loveland Airpark North. There's the potential for two buildings - one 48,000 SF and one 36,000 SF - and laydown yard/storage. With close proximity to I-25, this property allows easy access throughout Northern Colorado. The new 3.5 million square foot Amazon distribution facility is down the road from Airpark North. This property offers very hard to find yard space and flexibility to make the smaller lot all yard as well instead of building a second building. If a tenant or buyer were to use this whole lot as storage, there would be up to 4 acres ± of outside storage (pricing for this option is not yet set).
